VOUDOU VAGARIES.

From the New Orleans Bulletin.

We know of no other city in this country where fetish worship is indulged in except this. The many native Africans here and their immediate descendants have kept up the mysteries first learned in this country, and the ignorant and superstitious even of the whites have served, by becoming votaries, to keep up the order. Our readers must have been long since familiar with the orgies enacted yearly on the advent of St. John's eve or night. They vary a little with each recurrence, but the general characteristics remain the same.

Last night and the night before the these worshippers started early for the lake, and some going down the shore, below Milneburg, built fires and prepared for a night carousal, whilst others made a building out on the wharf their headquarters. Here it was that the crowd of sight seers congregated. In a small room, hardly twelve by fifteen, some two dozen or more of the votaries of the mysterious Voudou sat around silently gazing, and the center of attraction in the middle of the room.

On the floor a sheet was spread, and on it a nougat pyramid and at each corner a candle, a bouquet of flowers, and a bottle of anise seed water. The ceremonies opened by three negro men and women starting a low, monotonous chant, accompanied by a swaying motion of the body. Backward and forward they went, keeping up this unintelligible refrain, occasionally urged on by a sedate piece of old African humanity, Regina Frazie, who has been elected to the vaunted throne of Marie Lafont.

After some ten minutes they accelerated their motions evidently warming up to their work. The discord became greater. Their eyes rolled about and a short barking sound was emitted by all those on the floor, then the song was changed and le grand diable took anise seed water and sprinkled the four corners of the room, and then seized and lighted a candle and with the flame flickering between his fingers went through a series of contortions. They now became frantic, their yells louder, their motions more rapid.

Le grande diable then staggered about in a sort of delirium, and one yellow woman went into a respectable faint. A garter snake was brought out to make the affair more impressive for the ignorant and the spectators were each visited. After this, future good luck and fortune was bestowed on candidates in the shape of bon-bons, and reporter was told by the queen to wear it in the right hand pocket tied up in blue silk. As there was no silk handy, the gum drop was consigned to the muddy waters of the lake.

The whole affair is supremely ridiculous, and is a fit specimen of what credulity and superstition can bring about.

A NEW METHOD OF DIVORCE.

In Berne they have a novel method of dealing with matrimonial disputants. Divorces were freely granted, but first the applicant must go through the following test. A small room was prepared in which husband and wife were put—the door being then closed, to remain so for six weeks, except it should be set in motion at the urgent and united request of the wedded pair. There were in the room one stool, one plate, one spoon, a unity of all the requisites, and the solitary bed was of such dimensions that, if they chose to use it together, they must lie very close together. Of one thing, and one only, there was a duplicate, that was a little treatise on the duties of husbands and wives toward each other. No visitor was permitted to go near them, and they had only a glimpse at intervals of the grim face of the jailor as he pushed their food through a hole in the door. The bishop states that the test was attended with the most wholesome results. In most cases the parties were excellent friends in a few days, and very few could stand out for more than a fortnight. Another very gratifying circumstance was, that they had scarcely on record a case in which a second application was made by persons who had already gone through the ordeal.

THE uninitiated may imagine that "the bull's-eye," so often referred to in the reports of the International Rifle Match, is something larger than a pin-head, and smaller than a good-sized hat. As a matter of fact, the bull's-eye at Dollymount was 3 feet square. The target was 6 feet high by 12 feet in width, and "the centre," including the bull's-eye, 6 feet square. It would be a feat for an ordinary marksman to hit "the centre" at the 1,000-yard range. The conditions of the match excluded all adventitious aids, such as rests, sights, &c. Maj. Fulton who made the best scores at the short ranges, is considered the crack shot of America. He takes a peculiar position when shooting, lying down almost flat on his back, crossing his legs, pressing the stock of his rifle close against his cheek, and holding the butt with his left hand, which is passed around under the head. The right hand is thus left free to pull the trigger, and the crossed legs form an admirable rest. All the riflemen recline either on the belly, back or side, when shooting. One of the peculiar and unexpected developments of the match was the superiority of the Americans at the 900 and 1,000 yard ranges. The Irishmen supposed that the longer the range the better their chances of success, while the event proved that the contrary was true.

WHEN Governor Allen was waited upon by the committee that informed him of his nomination, he skipped so high his head bumped the ceiling. "Gimme room!" said he. "I feel 4,000 years younger!" and he went out into the street and roared with such sonorous strength that the people of Cleveland and Cincinnati thought a South American earthquake had arrived.

Gen. Charles W. Roberts, Democratic candidate for Governor of Maine, has been soaring on an untamed bird of liberty, and, by the way, making observations of this kind: "Let then the 'minute men' be warned, the watch-fires speedily kindled upon the hilltops, and every true patriot, and every sincere lover of individual liberty, be up and doing, prepared at the sound of the first signal gun promptly to respond to the summons and ready to strike a manly blow against the hirelings who have well nigh induced the sturdy yeomanry of the Dirigo State to believe that they are incapable of striking for themselves."

A CHICAGO man was recently captured by a band of marauding Indians near Fort Laramie, and as the only hope of saving his scalp he began talking about the greatness of Chicago, and with such singular effect that they immediately left him, one of the braves remarking as he did so, "Sheecago man heap much dam too big talker for Injun. Cheyenne lose um left ear stay listen longer."

THE gigantic army of grasshoppers that flew over this state in a northerly direction, during the past few weeks, have made their appearance in Dakota. The Sioux City Journal has dispatches recording their flight over the most thickly settled portions of Dakota. Up to the 28th they had not alighted to any great extent, and had done but little damage. They were pursuing the same northerly direction, and were generally high in the air.—Omaha Herald.

THE insanity of Robert Dale Owen is reported. If it be true, we presume it may be attributed to the subject of Spiritualism. Mr Owen had been for a quarter of a century a firm believer in the new faith. He was, however, badly victimized less than a year ago by the Katy King fraud and this fact probably had a great deal to do with the unsettling of his reason.

A LITTLE OF THE OLD FLAVOR

(From the New York Times, 28th.)

There is a slight flavor of the old-fashioned fire-eating bombast and stupidity in Gov. Kemper's speech of welcome to the Richmond Masons, who had just returned from Massachusetts, where their reception was very cordial. "You went," he said, as Virginians should go—not in garments of sackcloth, with the ashes of humiliation on bowed heads, but with uplifted heads, proud, erect, asking no forgiveness, professing no repentance for the past, some of you with the smoke of battle still upon your garments, proud to greet and to be greeted by the men of New England, not humbly as inferiors, but with pride as peers of the loftiest." The peculiarity of the Boston hospitality was that it ignored absolutely the part taken by the Southern visitors in the rebellion. It seems rather poor taste to drag that question in now, and boast of the past. Gen. Sherman, at a military banquet in Boston, jocosely, but very justly expressed the spirit of the occasion when he said: "We shall forget the past but you must not do so again." Mr. Kemper might have had nicer perceptions of what propriety demanded if he had been at Boston himself.

A NEW GAME.

The Peoria Transcript relates that a lot of sharpers are traveling about through Central Illinois selling dry goods to the farmers. One detachment the Transcript has heard of consisted of five men. One of the number seems to be in command of the party. When they go into a township they separate, and each one seeks out somebody thoroughly acquainted with the financial standing of the inhabitants and takes him along. Arriving at the house of a man whom it will do to trust, they commence operations by showing him some decided bargains in broadcloths for himself, or shawls for his wife and daughters. Usually the price is put much below what the farmer can obtain the goods for in town. If the price don't suit, it is lowered until it does. When the surprised farmer asks how the peddler can afford to sell so cheap, he replies that it is nobody's concern but his own, giving out the impression that they are smuggled, not denying even that they are stolen. The price in a majority of cases captivates the farmer, and he ends by buying a heavy bill (they will not sell less than $150) for which he gives his note, due in six months, with interest at ten per cent. This note is of peculiar form. On the back of it the farmer makes a statement of the amount he is worth. After signing, it is taken to the nearest banker or broker and sold. In due time the party giving it, wakes up to find that while he has bought some articles at a bargain, on the whole trade he has been egregiously duped.

One of the guides to this told that the net profit of one bill sold by his man, amounted to $41.25. And all the while the farmer thought he bought the goods much cheaper than he could of any legitimate dealer.

THE RESULT OF PERSEVERANCE.

It is stated that one of the wealthiest English velvet manufacturers, Mr. Listar, worked his way to success by years of patient labor in search of a way to utilize silk rags. He began to buy up all such waste at less than a cent a pound, and up to the year 1864 he had expended the immense sum of $1,300,000 in fruitless efforts to find a process. Nothing daunted, however, he continued his experimenting, and within the past ten years has discovered a method of converting such refuse into velvet of the finest quality. He now carries on his industry in England, in an establishment that employs some 4,000 workmen, and hundreds of travelers are also employed whose sole business is to buy the silk waste, and this they do in all parts of the globe. The factory is said to have cost nearly $3,000,000.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Advices from Lieut. Gen Sheridan from Brownsville, Texas, this morning, indicate a critical state of affairs at Matamoras, and a conflict to day between citizens and the Mexican soldiers as imminent. All the business houses in Matamoras are closed, and armed citizens are gathering, threatening to take Cortina from the soldiers, who, the vice consul thinks, are not strong enough to prevent.

NEW YORK, July 2.—A number of German ecclesiastics and others who had been driven out of the German Empire by the operation of the Folk law, have arrived here and started for Teutopolis, Illinois, where they expect to find an asylum in the Catholic religious institutions there. Among them are twelve priests, sixty ecclesiastical students and fifteen females of different religious orders. The exiles were warmly received here.

NEWTON, N. J., July 2.—Hughes, the murderer, was hanged at 10:30 this morning, and died from strangulation in 18 minutes. One hundred and twenty-four persons were present as witnesses. Hughes protested his innocence.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Suit was entered yesterday by a white man against Henry Smith, who keeps a lodging house, for ejecting him from his house, saying that he would accommodate no white persons.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The Democratic convention, last night, nominated J. O. Hamilton for Attorney General, and William Minnis for Surveyor General.

Another Storm at Quincy.

Gold in the Black Hills.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Early this morning the jury in the Tilton Beecher case sent a note to Judge Neilson, stating that it was impossible to agree. The Judge replied that he would send for counsel at ten o'clock, and communicate with them.

As the Judge entered the probate room, nearly the same crowd were present as on yesterday. About 11 o'clock the Judge and lawyers on either side took their seats, and soon the jury filed in, looking much wearied.

The Judge said: Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed on a verdict?

Foreman Carpenter replied: We have not, your honor; we regret very much that we find it impossible to agree.

The Judge said that he had learned from the jury, that they desired to be discharged, as some of their number were suffering in health, and he would act on that request. He would like them to carry away kindly recollections and, as far as possible, forget their long detention. He reminded them that only yesterday eleven of them had stated that they thought they could not agree, and one thought that they could. While he had perfect confidence in the opinion of the eleven, he thought that something was due to the twelfth juryman. He had believed it impossible for him to help them by any suggestion even in his charge. As to the weight of the testimony, it was for them to say what witnesses were and were not credible. He would like to know from them explicitly whether the application for the admission of new testimony had influenced them. Foreman Carpenter assured him that they had all stated to him that it had not. The Judge then said they were discharged.

Juryman Thayer said he wished it distinctly understood that the jury did not stand eleven to one as rumor had it.

Judge Neilson wished them to remain seated a few moments, as a photographer wished to take their pictures, but Jeffreys objected, and they left the court room. Mrs. Beecher went to the railing to shake hands with each juryman, as he passed.

The jury universally answered to the questions that they stood nine for Beecher to three in favor of Tilton, but the names of the jury on either side have not been revealed. Tilton and Moulton were standing in the room, and were besieged with questions, but only shook their heads. The jurors for Tilton, it is said, are Jeffries, Flate and Davis. Tilton says it is a moral victory for him.

The following is Moulton's card in the Brooklyn Argus:

"The New York Tribune, a paper in the interest of Henry Ward Beecher, published this morning the following paragraph: 'The evidence of Joseph Pearsall, reported in full elsewhere, so seriously implicates Francis D. Moulton in the manufacture of the false affidavits of Price and Loeder, that counsel for Beecher have already taken steps to indict him for conspiracy, as well as subornation of perjury, and will make applications to go before the grand jury. If Moulton should return to Brooklyn before the Grand Jury meets, he will be arrested, and, on examination, be held preliminary to action by the Grand Jury.' The judicial examination of the origin of the Price-Loeder affidavits, and of my connection with them, is exactly the thing I desire. Accordingly I have returned to Brooklyn to meet the menaces of Beecher's minions, and I hereby challenge and defy them to institute their threatened proceedings.

[Signed] FRANCIS D. MOULTON.

Inquiry being made of Col. Henry Barton Beecher as to the truth or falsity of the report that Mr. Francis D. Moulton was to be arrested on account of the developements in the Loeder-Price perjury case, he referred the inquirer to Lawyer Shearman. The latter merely says: "Moulton is not in Brooklyn, to be arrested; he is consulting with General Butler. When asked if Moulton was to be arrested, he said the question was one he could not answer. Beach has intimated that next week there will be a more earnest effort made to get at the bottom of the Loeder-Price conspiracy. He told Shearman on Wednesday that he would be called on to testify as to his connection with the case.

GOSSIP.

Notwithstanding the fact that all the jurors stated they had taken solemn oaths never to reveal the secrets of the jury room, the following has been ascertained by interviewers: One juror said, We stand to-day precisely as we did when we went up stairs into the jury room to deliberate eight days ago."—Another stated that at one time the jury stood 11 to 1; again, 9 to 3; and still later 5 to 7. There was an irreconcilable difference as to the credibility of witnesses on each side.

Juryman Hull said at times the discussion was very animated; that, before Neilson's charge, there was but a small majority for the defendant, but the charge threw the benefit of certain doubts in favor of defendant.

Another juror said the tide in favor of Tilton, at one time, was pretty low, even less than three. At another time, he said the jurors were six to six. Other figures are also stated on various authorities. One statement is that Beecher's friends on the jury, having used gigantic efforts to convert the opposition, had once nearly succeeded, but an indiscreet remark by a Beecher man caused an excitement which turned the scale against him.

Shearman said to-day that the counsel for the defense has been visited several times by a friend of one man of the jury, who intimated that his verdict could be purchased. Shearman declined to state whether they would move for a new trial. A rumor is prevalent that the plaintiff's' counsel will move for a new trial immediately, by placing the case on the October Calender, and that as soon as the case is called, motion will be made for a change of venue.

NEW YORK, July 2.—There was a grand ovation to Mr. Beecher at the Plymouth lecture room to-night. After the usual exercises, Mr. Beecher, sitting at his table, said he would not talk on that subject which touched all their hearts, but about the church, and before leaving for the summer would say some words to them which were in his heart. There had been said a good many things about this church by persons who were ignorant of its workings. His own judgment, unwarped by passion, the fruit of years' acquaintance with it, was, that by the blessing of God there had been brought into co-operative labor in this church a body of people such as has rarely been paralleled, not only in wisdom, but remarkable for individualism. As a church it had dwelt in unity, which had been the result of religious feeling. In referring to the trial through which the church had passed, Beecher said he thanked the audience for their patience and consideration. Without any action this church had stood for two years with immense sympathy for their chosen head and pastor, and what they had done was spontaneous and not ordered. This unity of church in sorrow and affliction for two years comes not from any arrangement between the parties, but from an indwelling spirit of God. They had passed through a red sea like the children of Israel, and were now on the other side, and the wheels of Pharaoh's chariots they could now see sticking in the mud [Laughter.] The speaker deprecated alienations between households, and invoked them not to break up the harmony of the church. Of all the saints he knew of, the worst were stone-throwing saints. There was enough of this kind in editorial chairs and the pulpit. God had not baptised him for nothing, but was preparing him for a work, although he did not yet know what it was. They were being consecrated for a great mission, and God had comforted them by the way he felt. This church was consecrated for a great work, and they were to be employed to unsteel hard hearts and make them holier, not a myth, not a form, but a reality. Let them therefore rejoice as God was leading them step by step to Zion. With these words Beecher concluded.

The Times of to-morrow publishes the following: A Times reported ascertained to night from reliable authority that the next movement on the part of Tilton will be to indict Gen. Tracy for perjury upon the ground that Tilton, Moulton and Woodruff distinctly stated to him the charge against Beecher was adultery; while he swore on the witness stand, that it had referred to improper proposals only. Tilton had been advised to take this step by the counsel, who have nothing to do with the trial, and it is believed that proceedings will be taken in the matter without delay.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Private advices from the Black Hills expedition, which are received this morning, state that investigations are proving the country richer in gold than has heretofore been supposed. The earth down to the bed rock, in every direction, is filled with particles of the precious metal, and the quartz shows rich veins. These advices are from responsible official sources.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.—The Galveston News' Brownsville special says: An order has been published that Cortina will be shot in case an attempt should be made to rescue him.

Judge Castillo and the wife of Cortina and fourteen others are prisoners.

The General order prohibits the assembling of groups or hostile demonstrations. All public places are closed.

Outside of Matamoras the people are reported to be rising, and arms are being smuggled out. A gunboat is reported as coming to the mouth of the Rio Grande to carry Cortina to Vera Cruz.

NEW YORK, July 2.—This afternoon Judge Brady handed in an opinion on David Dudley Field's motion to quash indictments against Tweed. He denies the motion, except as to two indictments. He says objections raised should be made, if at all, on the plea, not on the motion to quash.

QUINCY, July 2.—Still another deluge in these parts, more rain falling last night than during either of the proceeding storms. In consequence, railroads are again damaged, so that trains were all delayed, and some entirely abandoned. The Hannibal and St. Joe train, which left here this forenoon, returned from Callao on account of a serious washout and one bridge gone—will be through to-morrow. Missouri, Kansas and Texas—No train through. Quincy, Alton & St. Louis—No train through, but will be tomorrow. Quincy and Burlington—Bridge gone over Race creek, seven miles above here; passengers transferred to-day; it will be O. K. in the morning. Hannibal and Naples—No trains to and from Hannibal.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 2.—Private advices from the Black Hills expedition received this morning, show that the investigations are proving the country to be richer in gold than has heretofore been supposed. The earth down to the bed rock in every direction is filled with particles, and the quartz shows rich veins. These advices are from responsible official sources.

BOSTON, July 2.—The Governor and Council to-day decided to commute the sentence of Pomeroy, the boy murderer.

Pike, the Jeweler, is agent for the sale of the best brands of American watches.

That Procession.—The Calathumpian procession formed in front of the court house this morning early, and commenced marching through our principal streets at about 6 o'clock. The carnival marched down Franklin street until near the railroad, and thence east to Edward street, greatly amusing all our people who saw their unique costumes and noble (?) steeds. Most of the riders were mounted on ancient asses or mules, and the efforts of the men to keep their balky animals in file occasioned considerable merriment among the crowd of spectators who were on the sidewalks. There were representations of Neptune, Pluto, and other mythological deities.—It had been announced that an oration was to be delivered on the old square by Capt. J. Von Hartley, but in some way or other the orator failed to connect, and the people were much disappointed because of his failure to appear.

No Paper on Monday.—As a class the printers are as patriotic as anybody else, and the Fourth of July is the one day in the year upon which the idea of labor is to them more utterly revolting than at any other time. In order to allow the compositors, pressmen, carriers and other employes of the REPUBLICAN to "give one day to their country" there will be no paper issued from this office on Monday.

A Speck of War.—Last night at about half past 11 a difficulty sprung up between Philip Robinson and Albert Martin, at the corner of East Main and Water streets. Words brought on heavy blows, and the two young men displayed their pugilistic qualities for a few minutes to good advantage, until officer Wilkinson ran in between the combatants and parted them. He then conducted them into Justice Albert's court, where they were examined and found guilty of the charge of an assault. The Justice assessed each of the prisoners a fine of $4 and costs, and, as the amounts were immediately "squared up" both of the prisoners were released.

TEXAS LANDS.

We desire to say that if our Illinois friends want a section or more of GOOD LANDS, in a good country, and they will send their orders through Messrs. Peddicord & Burrows, or Warren & Durfee, we will personally see that they get choice lands. All orders received by letter or telegraph, by the 5th of July, will receive our careful attention.

We are satisfied, from the rapidity with which the public domain of Texas is being entered, that another expedition to ENTER LAND will be fruitless.

By the 25th of June, we will be fully prepared, with maps, documents, and men, to go into every nook and corner on the frontier and elsewhere, with one of the most reliable surveyors, in this or any State. Nothing but filing the scrip with the surveyor and designating the land, will secure it. The heavy immigration now pouring into these frontier counties, will soon give to every settler neighbors.

As it Should Be.—In no previous year has so much attention been paid by our people to the beautifying and improvement of their homesteads as has been the case this season. We are glad to notice a fact that is so significant of a desire to have our city present a good appearance so far as the tidiness of private residences is concerned. Those who are thus beautifying their homes are not only contributing to the good appearance of the town, but are furnishing attractions that will make home the dearest spot on earth to their children, and by this means may hold them aloof from temptations to which they would be exposed were their homes repulsive in their surroundings, causing them to seek diversion and pleasure elsewhere. Every dollar expended in improving the family mansion and its surroundings is so much invested for the moral and intellectual improvement of the household. Let the good work go on.

Speaking of Carpets, we have recently seen some beautiful patterns that were bought at Able & Locke's, and stepping into their large wareroom, on East Main street, we saw one of the finest displays of Brussels and Ingrain carpets it has ever been our pleasure to behold. They have also a full line of exceedingly handsome rugs.

Dividend Declared.—On the 1st inst. the Decatur National Bank declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent, and increased its surplus to $5,000. This is an evidence of prosperity that must be eminently satisfactory to the stockholders of the institution, and in view of which the business community will cordially congratulate them.

Bell Ringing.—The firm of Minkley & Dodson, auctioneers, has been cited to appear before Justice Albert on Monday next to answer to a charge of violating the ordinance recently passed by the city council rohibiting the ringing of bells or blowing of horns as a means of advertising business.

POLICE NEWS.

Last evening Officer Denham arrested Wm. McGuire, a young man, who, by taking a succession of drinks with his friends, had become utterly unconscious of his surroundings, and kept up an incessant yelling and howling. After the officer had taken his prisoner in charge he shut him up in the calaboose for a short relapse. Last night McGuire was taken out and conducted to Justice Hughes' office, where he paid $3 and costs for disturbance.

Al. Wayman was caught by Deputy Marshal Brockway driving a spirited horse through the principal streets of our city at a rate considerably in advance of the six miles per hour laid down in the city ordinances. He plead guilty to the charge of fast driving, and was fined $3 and costs. He immediately paid the amount required of him, and was released.

Thomas Jones plead guilty to the charge of drunkenness in Justice Albert's court this morning, and was fined $2 and costs—the usual amount assessed for this offense. He paid the required sum and left in a joyous mood.

A School Picnic.—Yesterday being the closing day of the cross-roads school, about five miles southwest of town, a grand picnic was held in the grove near by, in which both scholars and parents participated. A superb dinner was gotten up by the people of the district. At noon the school was dismissed, and all hands repaired to the grove, where pies, cakes, ice cream and other luxuries were discussed for some time. After dinner the young folks engaged in various kinds of amusements, base ball receiving the attention of the boys. After awhile the school was called to order, pieces were recited by the children, and addresses were delivered by the parents, expressing their high appreciation of the services of the teacher, Mr. David Phillips. These exercises were interspersed with appropriate music. At the conclusion of these exercises prizes were distributed among the children, and the company separated, well pleased with the festivities of the day.

Correction.—We learn that our account of the quarrel among the laundry girls of the St. Nicholas, which appeared in Thursday's paper, contained some misstatements which did injustice to some of the persons named. The affair, we are informed, was rather too insignificant to be worth making a fuss about.

The Cheapest.—Reliable articles like Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and True Flavoring Extracts, Vanilla, Lemon, Orange, Ginger, etc., that have stood the test of the best judges in the country, at a fair price, are the cheapest in the long run, if health is to be considered. Pure goods must have a fair valuation; adulterated articles are the only kinds that can be sold cheap, and many dealers sell such mixtures in preference to strictly pure articles, as they afford a better profit. dawlw

TROUBLED ABOUT GRASSHOPPERS.

"Erastus Jones, you orter be ashamed of yourself, a cuttin' up this way right here in the road afore everybody," was the remark made by an old woman from the country, as she held, by grim death, to the wing of Erastus, who was brimfull of bad whisky, and crazy for more, and making every effort in his power to get to a saloon. But the old lady was in earnest. At least we thought so, from the way she yanked the old man in the direction of their wagon. With one hand she held him by the back of the coat collar, and with the other she grasped him by the seat of his unmentionables, and compelled him, as the boys say, to walk Spanish. And as she sculled the old man along, she talked as only a woman can talk.

"Erastus, if you had your own way you'd jest keep on a drinkin that ere pizen till you got worms in your boots. The Lord knows I'm not a crusader, nor am I in favor of crusadin'; but I do believe in every woman a takin' her husband in her own hands, and a belt-thunder outen him every time he gets the blind staggers."

As Erastus dragged along on the tips of his toes he made several attempts to look back. But the old woman had the headway on him, and did not propose to give up her steering power. However, Erastus managed to gasp (the old lady had his wind about turned off), "See here, old woman, you're hurtin' that ere risen on my neck."

"Shet up you old lunatic, or I'll give you a worse risen than you 're a gettin' now."

"Well, ole woman, them air durn dam grasshoppers is 'nough to make trouble in any man's family, eat up all our crops and spit terbacker juice all over our farm."

"Oh! oh! you old sot," and here she elevated the old man clear off the pavement, and his feet made a revolution like a steamboat wheel out of water, and brought him down again with a thump, that made Erastus think that his immortal soul had fled. "Grasshoppers! grasshoppers! you old fool there aren't one in the State of Indiany."

"Well, ther papers says ther's goin' to be."

"Erastus, your mind and body is wanderin'; you'r got the jim jams."

By this time she had conveyed the old man to the tail end of the wagon, and gave him a boost that upended him in the vehicle like a sack of potatoes, where Erastus wilted and shut up like a hot-air baloon. The old lady then jumped into the wagon, gathered up the reins and turning to the crowd, remarked, "thats the kind of a clos-pin I am," and drove away.

THE RUSH TO KANSAS AND COLORADO.

The indications are that the rush to Kansas and Colorado will be greater than over in 1874. The shortest way to reach the Far West is through St. Louis, the great Mississippi-Valley City, of over 450,000 inhabitants, and thence west over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, which reaches all the great land grants in the West, and runs six fast Express trains, two more than any other road, between the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers. This road, in the last two years, has expended over two million dollars, besides earnings, in extraordinary improvement of roadway, in relaying its line with best quality of new steel and iron rails, on broad, new ties, and in passenger equipment, having substituted for ordinary cars new reclining chair coaches, with every appliance for comfort and safety, being elegantly carpeted and fitted with dressing rooms, with toilet conveniences for ladies, gentlemen and families traveling with children, free of any extra charge. Any ticket agent selling through tickets to the West will furnish tickets by this excellent route through St. Louis, over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, the best and shortest to Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, California and the Great West, it being the only line running through cars between St. Louis and Omaha. For map, circulars and time-tables address either F. A. Palmer, Indianapolis, Ind.; or P. B. Groat, St. Louis, Mo., either of whom will furnish any information desired. [jan 8wtf

Excursion Tickets from Quincy to Denver, Colorado.

For the benefit of health and pleasure seekers, and all those wishing to "Go West," the "Old Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joseph "Short Line" have placed on sale round trip tickets, from Quincy to Denver and return, good for three months from date of issue, at greatly reduced prices.

This popular Route is acknowledged by all to be the best equipped and best managed road west of the Mississippi River—running the finest Parlor Cars in the world on all day express trains, and Pullman's Palace Drawing Room Sleeping Cars on all night trains.

All express trains are equipped with the Westinghouse Patent Air Brake and Miller Patent Safety Platform and Coupler.

The track is in the best possible condition, a large portion of it having recently been re-laid with STEEL RAILS. Iron and stone bridges have taken the place of wood, and all other improvements conducive to the safety and comfort of its patrons have been adopted.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

℞ No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral; consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail.

Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
